

GULF WARS XXVIII A&S CLASSES & ACTIVITIES

*The GW Arts and Sciences Area and Activity coordinators welcome you the 28th year celebration and hope you find many wonderful A&S activities to enrich your days at War!
Please take a moment to read the important notes below.*

POPULACE

Class Changes

There are ALWAYS changes to A&S classes and activities after the booklet goes to print, so BE SURE to check for changes DAILY on signboards, at Information Point (5-points), Class Info Point (at Artisan's Row) and/or at any specific class/Activity area.

USE SOCIAL MEDIA TO GET NOTIFICATIONS DURING THE WAR! Get real-time updates on class changes via these tools:

Class Limits

There are no sign-up sheets for classes. For classes with limits, in general, the first students to arrive will get a seat. In some tents/areas, a lottery system may be used to determine who may participate hands-on (trial process this year). Remember, all students under 12 must have a parent in attendance. It is recommended that all students under 16 have a parent nearby.

Please be chivalrous in either process for classes with limits.

Class Credit

Individuals are responsible for tracking their own class participation at war. You may use the form at the back of the class section of this booklet for this purpose – consult your kingdom for class credit requirements.

FOR THE GULF WARS SCHOLAR CHALLENGE – MAKE SURE TO GET INSTRUCTOR INITIALS

INSTRUCTORS

PLEASE CHECK IN!

Please be sure to check in when you arrive on site with the areas for which you signed up to teach. This will re-assure the class/area coordinator and give you an opportunity to obtain any last-minute information.

Volunteer Hours

Teaching counts as volunteer hours for the war. AFTER EACH CLASS - be sure that your hours are recorded on the teaching roster for the class area in which you taught. These hours will be turned in FOR you at Volunteer Point, which is located at GW 5 points.

Deadlines:

Friday 2PM (for War points)

Saturday 2pm (for Raffle)

Sun 11am (for war)
